rs and still growing

In the last 75 years Shawnigan Lake School has grown from a one-building boys preparatory school of 8; to a full sized, co-ed boarding school for a student population of over 300. Our seventy - five year anniversary represents the entire life of the school, the people that have been apart of it, and everything that has changed since 1916.

The product of the last 75 years can be seen before us today. We represent the last three quarters of a century. Everything that has taken place in the history of Shawnigan Lake School has occurred so that we could be here today.

From grade eight on, the students grow in so many ways; they mature and prepare for life after Shawnigan, become widely versed in many areas of life, develop physically and meet people from many different cultures. Friendships sprout and grow to become the most important relationships in the pupils lives.

All of the before mentioned plus many that were not, are the ingredients to life at Shawnigan, and that is what the 1991 yearbook is all about. The sports, the staff, the students, the activities, the good, wicked, and rad times plus the bad, bummer and lame of 1991 are all in the pages to follow. Look at the pictures, read the articles and enjoy the book that will be your passage to this fantastic year - 1991.

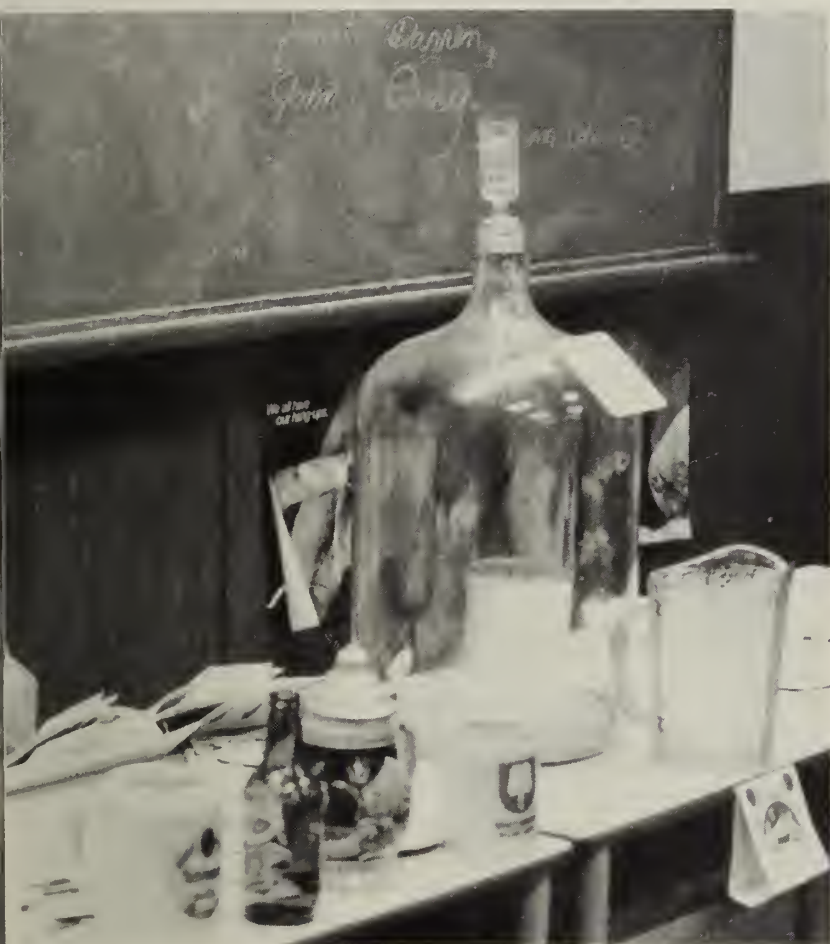

This can't be how you catch the bus back.- Kenneth Mak on the gr. 8 expedition.

Beginner's Tai Chi or 4th xv rugby?- a typical warm-up with the fabulous 4ths.

"...then you hide it in an innocent looking bottle.." --Darcy Repen lecturing about some of the finer points of German beer making for International Week.

"Everybody freeze! This fish is loaded and I'm not afraid to use it." - Blair Wilkinson having some fun with a fish.

Have you been a good boy this year? Mr. Yates and Santa Steidl at the Copeman's Christmas Party.

"I'm dead?" -- Alistair Nixon in the bio lab.

WORLD EVENTS

Kuwait was invaded by Iraq and in turn the U.N., headed by the U.S., sent forces into Iraq. The peace community felt that this was a measure to simply protect the first world's oil supply, but most felt it was a method of freeing Kuwait from Saddam Hussain. The allied forces won but there is still unrest in the area.

Margaret Thatcher retired after 11 years of office in the British Government. Closer to home, Bill VanderZalm resigned and was replaced by Rita Johnson -- the first woman Premier in Canada.

The infamous Michael Dunahee disappeared from a Victoria play ground and the entire country searched for him.

SLS EVENTS

The staff was busy this year with the births of Kate Bruce - Lockhart, Tessa Felix, Josh Noble, Alyssa Yates and Alisha Dukelow. When the school wasn't "ooing" and "aahhing" over the babies they were busy preparing for the 75th anniversary celebrations -- the rugby Canada match and the various dinners and the BIG MAC weekend.

Even with all of the excitement around the school the thing that most students will remember is the addition of REAL ORANGE JUICE to the cafeteria menu for the small price of $8,500 a year.

MOVIES/FASHION/MUSIC

Kleenex was flying at Ghost and screams pierced the air at movie theaters everywhere with the opening of The Silence of Lambs, Jacobs Ladder and Arachnaphobia. Dancing With Wolves was the years favorite while The Doors reincarnated Jim Morisson for two hours.

The 60s are back to some student's delight and other's chagrin. Mini skirts, patched jeans, the natural look, psychedelic patterns and beads all paraded the halls of Shawnigan.

In the music scene the New Kids on the Block were hated by many and loved by few, Madonna hit more tabloids then ever before and a new British invasion is on the horizon with groups like the Stone Roses, Happy Mondays and the Charletons all coming from Manchester. Stevie Ray Vaughn died and left many Jazz and Blues fans behind.

TRIVIAL MATTERS

Bart Simpson invaded the minds of the younger and older generations while the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles attacked movie screens, television screens and toy stores. Bungy jumping gave people the urge to tie giant elastic bands to their ankles and jump off bridges - all for only $90. Girls took to wearing perfume bottles and bubble blowers as necklaces while the guys enjoyed tacky ties and bow ties to dinner.

Poll Results

a peek into student's environmental actions...

50% of Shawnigan students take showers that last 10 minutes or MORE!! 9% have a three minute morning ritual and 41% grab a five minute cleansing break.

69% are concerned about the amount of food that is wasted in the cafeteria. I wonder if they are amongst the 83% that, at least occasionally, take too much food and end up throwing some of it away

90% of students make some kind of effort to turn off lights and music as well as close windows and doors when leaving a room.

33% of students do not save plastic bags to reuse them later, while 32% do. The remaining population save bags "sometimes."

Well, at least 50% of the school claims that they would make an effort to separate wastes for composting purposes. Hopefully these fine youths don't include the 20% that insist on not even knowing what composting is!

interview: m r l a n e

Over the past year there has been talk of great environmental changes in the school. I had yet to witness any, so one evening I strolled up to Ripley's house so that I could talk with the man behind Shawnigan's newly aquired environmental committee.

Surprisingly, Mr Lane does not have any practical experience in the field of environmental issues. He does, however, have the awariness and the concern needed to do a good job as head of the committee.

Although the 8b science class had been doing an excellent job with the recycling program, there was need for a larger scale operation where the resposibility wouldn't have to fall on the shoulders of only a small group of students in the school. At the beggining of the school year Mr Bruce - Lockhart asked Mr. Lane to start up a group comprised of students and teachers to tackle the environmental problems in the school. Mr Lane agreed and started by requiting teachers and doing his, now legendary, presentations during assembly. Once enough students volenteered to fill the positions, two from each house, five sub-commitees started up: energy conservation, food waste and use, composting, recycling and disposal of non-recyclable items.

Mr. Lane was the first to admit that, for this year, no large environmental improvements have been made. He even went as far as to say that it was his fault. This is an opinion that I have to disagree with, Mr Lane has worked hard on the project but the school has simply been a very busy place this year, and it's been hard to fit everything in. Mr. Lane is dissapointed that "...things hadn't crystalized and brought the plan together for the end of the year." But by starting off next year with more direction will, I'm sure prove to be beneficial to the 1991/1992 commitee.

Will much be expected from the students next year? The road to environmental improvement will have to go two ways. The school will need to supply funding for improved facilities, but the students will also have to increase awariness and get into the habit of telling their peers to pick up garbage and recycle cans. "We have a lot of people that are very well aware (of environmental problems)," all I can hope is that people act instead of just talk.

With more and more global problems surfacing, from oil pollution to the destruction of rainforests, people that are aware and willing are in high demand. I hope that the environmental commitee of Shawnigan Lake school can be our contribution to the rapidly growing fight for a clean environment. Best of luck to Mr. Lane and all others that are involved in the group.

Another devious plan. Sky Masterson contemplating how to capture Sarah Brown's heart.

The announcer, Paul Dalgas, is flattered by Miss Adelaide's attention.

"Ok where is he?" St. Brannigan inquires as to the whereabouts of Nathan Detroit.

Love is in the air. Nathan and Adalaide discuss marriage after 14 years of engagement.

What to do when you're in love? Sarah Brown dreams of Sky Masterson.

A chorus line. The gamblers speak about the joys of winning money.

Languid, tranquil, solitude
 The sapphire waters surround my spirit
 Waves rhythmically washing against me
 The scent of distant lands is Pungent in the cool, crisp breeze.
 Exists is the sound of silence.

Poseidon is beckoning . . .
 I can see down
 Down
 Down, into the depth of international seas.
 I can see events that have occurred
 Are being dealt with
 And ones that have yet to come.
 Where the sunlight shines
 There are millions of rainbow rays.
 Many a verduous or cerulean, however
 Crimson is nowhere to be seen.
 And abandoned flecks shine like diamonds.
 It is serene, calm,
 All movements are hesitant and cautious, like when you capture a moment of life and Play it back in slow motion.
 This is how the world should be.
 Joyful, colorful, and a hundred times brighter than the Sun itself.
 There is an entire universe that
 Many a few can conceive.
 They are tarnished too late,
 And see only a murky swirl where there is Actually light.

There is no war.
 There is no discrimination.
 There is no hate.
 There is no jealousy.
 There is not loss of words.
 But then, what is there?
 There is peace, and harmony,
 And love, and admiration . . .
 And poetry.
 As the eyes of my soul ascend,
 I can see that Rain has replaced Sun,
 And droplets plunge into the Depth darkness of these vast aquas.
 Even though the water is not clear
 One can still see what is moving about.
 Overall is a pallid wash of colour,
 But the motions are quite evident. . .
 Poseidon promises that the Sun will return again.

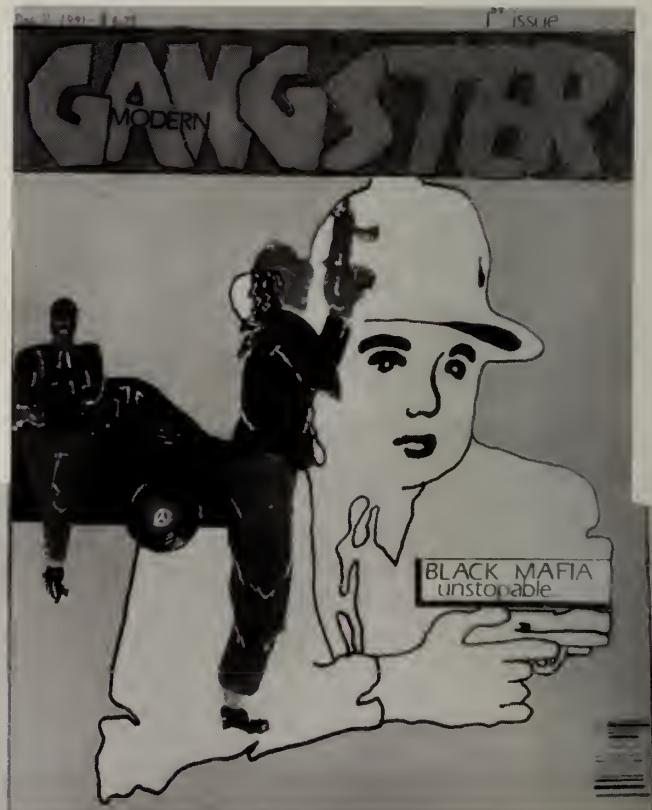

My only regret, is that
 The sailor who guides me can merely Dream of this immaculate world, whereas
 I can see.

Chameleon

Dusty, Dank open plain of glory or humiliation.
Sitting safely in the wings one can now hear the hum of the ancient lights and see every scratch engraved upon the stage.
The curtains, sealed together by electricians tape, provide a veil to the outside world
A sea of empty chairs stand watching;
waiting; anticipating my every move.

The crowd is awakened, faces sift into the once empty chairs, a heightened buzz of excitement echoes, throughout the hall.
The stage plays the part of a chameleon
as its blemished facade is traded for grandeur.
An anxious voice whispers, "you're on next."
A hush falls over the audience.
I listen for the familiar hum of the lights,
but the war waging inside my head drowns out all sounds, all sounds but the pulsating rhythm of my heart.
I close my eyes and gasp for my last private breath.
My lungs, now filled with precious air
I stride out onto the stage.

I lift my head to scan the room and find the chairs once again empty,
the building once again dirty and dilapidated.
The hum of the lights once again penetrate my ears and an odd smell once again
wafts towards my nose.
I look down at the floor beneath my feet and see once again a Dusty, Dank open plain of glory or humiliation;
a chameleon.

Alone

this cell is cold
the dark walls have no colour
only deep dank crevices
The familiar odor of urine haunts me shriveled up in my own corner cigarette in my shaking hand
my torn and tattered clothing, plain and used
I scratch the days grown of stubble on my face
My face is worn from thirty years years of slavery and violation deprivation of youth
I look around
this is my home
my place of sanctuary
My crime is innocence
and it's cold in here

Past to Future

I look around myself,
See the buds bloom on the island,
Occasionally I see the goldfish
Frolic in the water
Below the small bridge where I stand.
I am grateful to have such a spacious environment.
I look at the buildings.
They say old C.W. still likes to sit
In his place in the chapel pew.
I am haunted by the thought...
Of boys dying where the first girls lived
And where others lay their heads at night.
They say they are also going to make a new fine arts theater.
The old one, I agree, is quite out of date.
Then, off in another corner I see a new house,
Only two years old
And in another spot,
Right beside,
I watch the caretakers
Clear the land for a new girls' house.
I can already hear the laughter
And see the tears that will be shed.
The campus had changes quite a bit over the years,
And with each step it gets better.

"What beautiful music."
The Shawnigan Lake Choir

"Mr. J you amaze us!" Paul Dalgas and Mike Goodall are in trance.

CHOIR

Three years ago Mr. Johnson came to Shawnigan to teach the A capella choir. There was a definite lack of members in the first two years, however this year the numbers have grown, and with it our ability to sing well as a group.

The farthest and only trip we made was to Vancouver, where we sang for the Parents Guild on May 6th. We also had a memorable experience in sitting through two consecutive chapel services during the May celebration weekend. However, I think that the highlight of our performing was the concert for the May Open House. We really got it together on that occasion and received high praise from Mr. J., who claimed that we "finally became a choir"!

All in all it was a great year and we're hoping it will be even better for the next. Already we're planning to participate in the Victoria Festival of Arts and have high hopes in that area. Thank you to Mr. Johnson for making it a fun and prosperous year.

"What happy looking girls."

BAND

This year the band grew in size, 20-32 members, and improved in quality. The beginner groups joined the senior band during the third term! The group performed in the Cowichan Music Festival and received an 86%. They also played on the school's Fine Arts Concerts and at the end of the year performed Phantom of the Opera in the chapel with Stephen Sheild helping out on the organ.

Many offshoot groups from the band were formed. Soloists, duets and trios performed in the music festival and at school functions. A string ensemble was formed for the first time this year. They received an 87% in the festival and were invited to perform in the highlights concert. They performed about six times during the school year. Howard Urquart and Christian Westarp won music scholarships in the festival string division. A brass quintet met and performed on a regular basis during the third term. A stage band met on a few occasions for fun. Many students used their music classes to improve their instrument or voice.

Music is definitely contributing and improving the life at Shawnigan Lake School.

LIBRARY

Library

As a dynamic center for academic research and excellence, the library is reaching out now to take a firm grasp upon information, technology in order to help our students thrive in an information society and bridge the millennium. To facilitate this change, the library has spent the year loading all titles onto a data base in the Eloquent Automation Software so that in the Fall of 1991 students will be able to search the collection using a computer terminal and print the results of their search. This will greatly speed access to essential sources.

Circulation of material will be achieved through barcodes on books and patron cards using an infra red light pen to link a student to specific material and make the collection traceable for better service. A CD ROM Station in the library with on-line access will allow students to retrieve information from various encyclopedias and data bases such as Time magazine at the speed of light! In fact the library is now poised to become a second computer center within the school, but using an IBM platform.

The library activity next year will include story telling in various schools and libraries in the area; and tales will be told, book repair as a craft, computer skills and library supervision for senior members. 1990-91 has been a time of transition and my thanks to the library activity members who helped pave the way.

SPEECH ARTS

The dramatic talent at the school is now being served by a new programme which teaches dramatic technique through monologues and duologues. Diction, characterization and motivation are the major skills taught which lead to public performances. There was a senior group of ten students and a junior group of seven students in November both groups combined to put on an ensemble performance of monologues from literature under the theme of "Identity." The show was a critical success and a commercial one with two-thirds of the students viewing the show on their own volition.

In the second term some of the monologues from November's show, along with new material, was placed in competition at the Cowichan Musical Festival. The Shawnigan group performed splendidly and, as well as gaining thirteen firsts and nine seconds, gained the honor of having two Seniors recommended to perform at the Provincial Arts Festival in North Vancouver in May. Some challenging works from Ibsen to Atwood were worked upon and were seen as a Dress Rehearsal at the 75th Anniversary Weekend, again to excellent audience response. I am pleased to report that Alastair Jarvis came Second in the Province in his section and Rosalynd Roome came third in the province in the Senior 30 years and under Calgary.

All members of the two groups worked hard and performed well over the year. We ended by performing a high-paced version of "Hamlet" in 15 minutes as scripted by Tom Stoppard. The 75th Anniversary audience enjoyed the outdoor frenzy of this show! Mr. Jarvis looks forward to further developments in this programme in the future as there are so many talented young performers in the school. Next year he will be directing "Scapino", a fast-paced comedy, with a cast led by Adam Thomas and Tyler Hawkins.

DEBATING

The 1990-91 year was a rather short one for the Shawnigan team as we were not invited to the Island Championships, but this however did not deter us from participating in many smaller events.

The first event we attended was the Newman/FISA debates, this year hosted by York House School in Vancouver. Debating in the junior category were the teams of Doug Devlin, Caroline Boyd, Rahim Lalji and Jibran Sharif. Debating in the senior event were Paul Dalgas, Stephen Harper, Rebecca Morley and Stefanie Westarp. Everyone participated well despite the fact that Rebecca, Paul and Stephen were the only ones with prior debating experience, so a good effort was made by all.

The second event we attended was the Annual Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting, (a mock session of a Commonwealth Conference) held at St. Michael's University School. Participating in this were Stephen Harper, Rebecca Morley, Paul Dalgas and Stefanie Westarp. This was Stephen's fifth and Paul's second Commonwealth Conference and these seasoned veterans helped to guide Stefanie and Rebecca through Commonwealth procedures.

The final event was the Annual United Nations simulation at Glenlyon-Norfolk School, and attending this were Stephen Harper, Alastair Jarvis, Charles Smith and Mark Lamont. Special note must be made of Alastair and Stephen, who were prominent and spoke well during both the crisis simulations and the General Assembly.

With the graduation of Stephen Harper and Paul Dalgas, the school will be losing it's two most prominent debaters. Paul, during his two years at Shawnigan, was both complimentary and complementary to the debating program and to Stephen who served as the backbone of the debating program during four of his five years at Shawnigan.

Best of luck for the future!

RIFLERY

The Rifle Club has had an excellent year. Sixty students made over 570 attendances, and won sixty-nine awards. As well as the numerous Bronze, Silver and Gold crests, there were seven prone crests, three kneeling crests and two standing crests awarded.

Bart Straw was the second person in nineteen years to complete the Expert's Shield. However, Adam Campbell and Stathi Tsangaris are nearing the finish line and should accomplish the lengthy task next year.

There was a tie between Ryan Bowes and Stathi Tsangaris, for the George Frazer (Senior Individual) Trophy. A sudden death shoot out was arranged and the result was another tie. Never before has this occurred so they decided to share the honour. Adam Campbell won the Junior Individual Trophy.

It was nice to see some of the girls taking an interest this year. Ingrid Hanson, Christina Claridge, Chloe Beeney and Louise Egan were all regular attenders.

Hopefully the years to come will be as good as this one. Good luck to all who follow and especially to those working on their shields.

Capt. B. Straw

ARCHERY

This year has been particularly interesting for the archers. We had only one newcomer, Christina Claridge, who had shot prior to coming to Shawnigan, and was shooting at a high level when she arrived.

Scott Rickard, returning from last year has also continued to improve. He has been keeping a solid score which surely will rise even more next year.

I was able to improve my score as the year continued, constantly beating my own high scores. It was certainly a productive year.

The Cowichan Bowmen Club is where we shoot. We shoot at 30 to 55 meters on the outside range and about 18 or 20 meters at the inside range.

Together, we have all improved, and enjoyed archery. Hopefully everyone will return for next year so we can continue to improve.

Scott, Christina and Mr. Anderson entered the Queen Victoria Day Shoot in May in order to qualify for the B.C. Summer Games.

We thank Mr. Anderson for all his help, and would like to congratulate him on running such a fun archery program at Shawnigan. Hopefully, archery at Shawnigan will continue, and the archers will return for next year.

Genesis

The Beginning

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

<sup>a</sup>And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

<sup>b</sup>And God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear." And it was so. <sup>c</sup>God called the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters he called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the

Street Ministry

Charles Smith said in answer to "Why do we have Chapel? Two reasons: The first reason is tradition. The Anglican Church is very much a part of the English ancestry of this school . . . tradition has its good points. It reminds us where our present culture come from. The second reason is that the presence of Chapel in our lives gives us a base point from which we can build our beliefs and philosophies on life."

Paul Dalgas in response to "What does Chapel mean to me?" said Chapel gives me the opportunity to serve you, my peers. I do this out of friendship and kindness, knowing that in the long run it will be beneficial for all of us. So consider me not just as a Servant of God but as a Servant to my fellow peers."

I give thanks to God for the witness of these young people and for the opportunity to serve Him here at Shawnigan. To me the following quote from Mother Teresa sums up what we are all called to do.

"The important thing is to follow God's way, the way he leads us to do something beautiful for him."

Baptism Confirmation

March 9, 1991 was a grand and glorious day in the life of our Chapel at Shawnigan. The Right Reverend Ronald Francis Shepherd, Bishop of British Columbia and Mrs. Shepherd visited our school along with parents, family and friends of the seven young people presented to receive the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. The preparation for this event consisted of weekly meetings from October to March and a weekend retreat on "Prayer" at Bethlehem Centre in Nanaimo. The retreat was co-lead by D.G. Rolston and E.G. Bonfield and facilitated by the Chaplain.

Erin Netta Kaye - Baptism
James Nicholas Sanderson Smith - Confirmation
Peter Frederick Walter Beeney - Confirmation
James Douglas Warner - Confirmation
George Roesinger - Confirmation
Michael William Cleare - Baptism/Confirmation
Adam Arthur Campbell - Baptism/Confirmation

It is not easy for a young person to stand up in front of his/her peers and let everyone know his/her commitment to the Lord. We give thanks to God for his significant witness in the life of our community and we look forward to offering our support in the future. May God be with them as they journey with Him.

Shalom,

Father Gordon+

GRADE 8 Expedition

While the rest of our school was at home preparing for the year ahead, the grade eight class of 1990-91 had already unpacked and settled in here at Shawnigan. Why? For the grade eight expedition of course. The grade eights along with four senior students and six members of staff left the school for a three day, fun-filled trip to the Easter Seal Camp on the other side of the lake. The days were full of interesting and exciting activities designed to get the grade eights acquainted with one another. The new students enjoyed such activities as kayaking, canoeing, hiking and orienteering. The evenings had such scheduled events as stargazing, a mini-olympics, set up by the staff and senior helpers, and a game of capture the flag on Memory Island. The trip was tipped off by a visit from our school prefects and some other staff for a scavenger hunt. At the end of the three days everyone, including the staff and seniors, were excited and anxious for the year to get started. Many friendships were made in that short time that will last a lifetime.

Everyone was thrilled. Some could not sleep and got up as early as possible. Finally, the bus left and we reached Manning in about six hours. The journey did not seem long at all. Talking and watching movies on the bus passed the time.

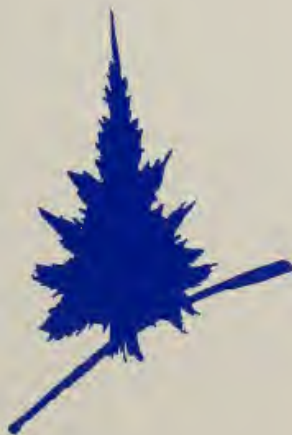

I had never skied before and was not really looking forward to the experience but everyone said it would be a great week.

Indeed it was. Once again it was a successful Ski Week for Shawnigan. Thanks to Mr. Grey the arrangements were perfect. It was good to stay with friends, cooking breakfast, being independent etc. The skiing was wonderful and each evening there were programmes, meetings and movies.

One of the special events was 'Carnival'. It took place on the Wednesday and consisted of a cross-country race, inter-house games and competitions and of course the snow sculptures. Everyone participated enthusiastically and seemed to enjoy themselves.

At the end of Ski Week, we all left for a three day half-term. It was one of the best weeks of my life.

Le Weekend D'Immersion

C'était la meilleure année pour ce voyage d'Immersion de français. Le temps faisait beau et tout le monde était très heureux et inquiète avant notre débarquement. Quand nous sommes arrivés sur l'île de Thetis, personne n'a parlé beaucoup, mais vers deux heures plus tard, nous parlions comme les francophones natives. (peut-être pas, mais nous essayions.) Pendant ce weekend, nous avons eu beaucoup de choix de jeux. On pouvait choisir l'incroyable jeu de boules avec M. Candelaria ou Génies en Herbe avec Mme. Carr ou le baseball avec Mme Leary et Mme Towner, les deux jouers qui étaient les premières personnes à frapper la balle en dehors du parc sans un bâton.

Nous pensons que ce voyage était une occasion fantastique pour tout le monde. Nous avons appris beaucoup sur la langue et nos amis aussi. Nous nous souviendrons pendant longtemps de ce weekend sur l'île de Thetis.

Looking Back on Seventy-Five Years

Seventy-five years ago, Christopher Windley Lonsdale purchased a small piece of land and a ramshackle building and began to make a school in his image. In the first official year of the school's operation, the student body was small -- two girls and a handful of boys. Today, in an age when bigger is too often thought to be necessarily better, Lonsdale's humble beginnings seem almost absurd. But Lonsdale had a vision. He did not look at his students and see how few they were; instead, he imagined how many would come after them.

If Lonsdale was visionary in his plans to build, he was nothing more than practical and sensible in his view of education. Quite simply, he believed that young people should learn maturity through a broad range of experiences -- academic, athletic, artistic, and manual. And in those early years at the school, Nature and Necessity dictated that the emphasis fall on 'manual.' It was, after all, the students themselves that helped Lonsdale build Shawnigan Lake School.

By western Canadian standards, Shawnigan is an old school. An old institution. It is very different from, and very much the same as, the school Lonsdale founded. But interpreting a school is difficult. By virtue of human individuality, identical experiences are necessarily different, and each person's walk through the architecture of buildings, rules, personalities, conflicts and triumphs that are the substance of any institution may be interpreted differently. For some, the school is Lonsdale himself. Period. For others, it is a gifted and caring housemaster, an important game, the first contact with an academic subject that shapes an entire life. Still others define their school experience in terms of an important and lifelong friendship. The objective reality of what happens on the grounds and in the rooms of Shawnigan Lake School cannot be altered. The only accessible portion of the school's history lives within its people: the students and teachers who have been responsible for its life.

This Seventy-fifth Anniversary year will be remembered differently by different people, but one of the most important aspects of this special year is the common ground we have once again begun to build. More than five hundred people renewed or consolidated their ties to the school at the Gala Ball in Vancouver in February of 1991, and many revisited the school during the year, either during the May Anniversary Celebration, or for more private and reflective visits. And, once again, a class of graduates left the school to make their way in the world.

It is this movement -- people striding forward into the future, others returning to their past -- that speaks

It is this movement -- people striding forward into the future, others returning to their past -- that speaks most powerfully for Shawnigan Lake School. Everyone who had come into contact with the school had been altered by the school. And thought the cycle has now completed itself seventy-five times, this is only the beginning.

"What am I letting myself in for?" This was the first thought that entered the mind of Malcom Burns who joined the staff this year as a junior master. Mr. Burns is a graduate of 1990 from Loretto school in St. Andrews, Scotland. Affiliated with Grove's house Mr. Burns' duties this year have included: coaching Rugby, Soccer, Basket-Ball and Track and Field. All of these sports he played at his school before coming to Canada. As well, he has been an assistant to all of the science departments, an office assistant and a substitute teacher. When he asked himself what he had gotten himself in for, he probably never thought that he would be as busy and as obligated as he is. After closing day ceremonies Mr. Burns is planning a tour of Canada and then he will return home at the end of July. We hope his exchange was all that he expected it to be and, we wish him the best of luck for the future.

Miss Kennedy came to Shaw in the beginning of September to help coach the rowing program and the to teach the infamous 8B math class. She graduated early from grade 13 in Ontario from Governor Secondary School and came to us after a decision to take a year off from University. When asked what she really likes about Shaw, Miss Kennedy replied "Oh, the students." Her hobbies include cycling, swimming, skiing, T.V., and the Friday night prep duty in Kaye's house. When inquiries were made into what she would like to do next year, she had no real idea, but the suggestions ran from living in a tropical country to going back to school to learn how to be a monastery school teacher. She also said she would like to come back here again but she did comment on how limiting the area was. As the school year came to an end we had to say goodbye to Miss Kennedy and she will head back home, but hopefully she will have good memories of Shawnigan to keep with her for the rest of her life.

Regina Montag - biology teacher, coach and rower extraordinaire. Where did she come from, and why is she here? Well, quite simply Ms. Montag was born in Wuppertal West Germany. She received her masters in Biology and Physical education from the University of Bochum in Germany. At University she also took part in the rowing program as coach and also as athlete. One summer, Regina Montag headed out to tour Ottawa with a Canadian friend. Travelling all over the east she found that she still wanted to visit the west -- so out she came. "I love it here," she exclaims, so she stayed, found a job at Shawnigan and, luckily, is with us today. At Shawnigan she teaches junior sciences, coaches the novice girls rowing crews and is the assistant house mistress of School House. Her silent presence can be felt among the staff and students at Shawnigan and hopefully she will return next year to continue her teaching and coaching career.

Ms. Susan Margaret Newns was born in Manchester, England. There, she spent her childhood and a portion of her adulthood. At age 18, she moved to South Africa, where she danced with a ballet company until she was 21. She moved back to England and continued dancing, but this time with a contemporary dance company. In 1984, she moved to Canada and here she resides. Ms. Newns has a background in graphic design but had taught most of her life. Being a housemistress is a new experience, and one she enjoys very much. "I like seeing the kids with wet hair and slippers on; it breaks down social barriers more quickly." Being a housemistress allows her to know who the kids really are and she hopes the kids in School House know her not only as Ms. Newns the teacher, but also as Ms. Newns the person. Her son, Michael, 11, attends Drinkwater Elementary School, and her daughter, Sarah Hattingh, 15, attended grade 10 here at Shawnigan.

Mr. Shields came to us from the Victoria Conservatory of Music where he was mainly accompanying. He has an ARCT and an AMUS from the University of Western Ontario. Presently Mr Shields, is the organist and choir director of St. Andrews Presbyterian in Victoria. Thankfully, he manages to squeeze in enough time to be the organist of our own chapel and he contributed greatly to this years musical production of Guy's and Doll's. We wish him luck in his career here at Shawnigan and wherever else his musical talent carries him.

In the fall of 1990 Shawnigan welcomed Mr. John Simonton as a vibrant member of its teaching staff. At the University of Alberta he studied mechanical engineering, and graduated in 1981. This was the beginning of a most interesting period of Mr. Simonton's life--of the next ten years, he spent five overseas. Many experiences during these years led to a fascination relating to other cultures, and after Mr. Simonton earned his teaching certificate in 1986, he put it to use immediately...in Malawi. Upon his return to Victoria, three years later, he worked at several part time positions. Shawnigan is his first full time teaching position in British Columbia. Up to this point, Mr. Simonton's stay here has been an enjoyable one. He has thrived on the challenge of teaching Math (Grades 9, 10, and 11) and Science (Grade 10 Chemistry) at a high level. He has become extremely involved in the Cycling program, and he has also helped out with Junior Basketball and Volleyball.

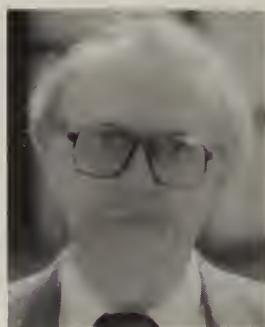

Mr wells has attended Shawnigan in the capacity of rowing coach, library technician and house tutor and advisor in Lake's house. From the moment he arrived at the school in the beginning of the Spring term, he was well liked by all. In the Rowing club Mr. Wells arrival was greatly anticipated, and he hasn't disappointed as his talent and experience with the sport have been invaluable to the progress of both the boys' Junior Varsity and Novice Colt crews. He is a graduate of Wanganui Collegiate School, where he was Rowing Captain in his final year, and after his graduation he decided to pursue his sport through the Union Boat Club in Wanganui. After two seasons of rowing on their elite crews, Mr. Wells returned to his old high school to coach until the end of 1990. Mr. Wells has enjoyed his two terms at Shawnigan, and feels that this exchange is something he will remember and cherish for many years. He has brought a great deal of humour and spirit to the school, and his presence will be missed by all when school starts again in September.

1991 has proved to be a most enjoyable and successful one for the house. The ever present Copeman's spirit reached a new peak this year with a great deal of success in all inter-house events a real turn about from the last few years. The house not only did well for itself, but members contributed greatly to the school as a whole in sports, all aspects of the fine arts program and life at Shawnigan in general.

Our fine performance in the Round-the-Lake-Relay set the tone for the rest of the year, as we finished well in almost every event. In 'non-sporting' events, our dragon won the ice sculpture contest and we came second in riflery. Also, for the first time in a long while, Copeman's has fared well in academics, finishing in the top three almost every tri-weekly. Our juniors deserve credit for much of our sporting success, being a force to be reckoned with in every event. We won junior track and field, field hockey and basketball and finished second or third in practically everything else. On the senior side we were not quite as spectacular but we gave it our best and finished respectably. We won senior field hockey, came a close second in senior rugby and were responsible for the house's good performance in academics.

But, of course, house life is much more than just competition. The Raiders Spirit has been high the whole year, with our banner and support present at all the inter-house events. In-house events like all those barbeques (anything up to 3 time a week), the house skims featuring 'sin Mr. Noble' trips to the movies, hockey games and Victoria (each with their inevitable 'pit-stop' at McDonald's after), the Christmas party with Santa Steidl and the house day at Memory Island all made the year that much more enjoyable.

In such a successful year, it is easy to forget the people that have made it such a success. While there is not a single member of the house that did not contribute, a special thanks must go to Mr. Noble. Without our Housemaster's guidance, and the assistance of Mr. Grass, Mr. Rolston and Mr. Yates, Copeman's would simply not be the same. On a final note, the memories have been great, we finally won the Lonsdale's Cup and good luck for next year all you Raiders.

L O N S D A L E S

The 1990-91 year marked the beginning of a new era for Lonsdale's as it was Mr. Felix's first year at the helm of the Phoenix house. He, with the help of Mr. Dickens, Mr. Fraser and Mr. Dukelow, managed to keep the antics of the 50 - odd (or is that 50 odd?) boys in the house to a minimum.

Although Lonsdale's wasn't as strong in academics as in past years, we managed to make up for this with excellence in other aspects of school life. The examples are many: Adam Thomas' role in the school production of Guys and Dolls; George Hamplas' being named School Captain of Soccer and Field Hockey; Bart Straw being named School Captain of Riflery and Chapel Crucifer; efforts, for high placings in inter-house events such as tennis, golf, riflery, soccer, basketball and rugby demonstrated the spirit and dedication of the boys in the house. Many of these good results were achieved by the juniors, who will be assets in the future of the house, and it will be interesting to see how they fare.

On behalf of the Lonsdale's Grads, I'd like to wish the best of luck to everyone in the future.

GROVES'

The men of Groves returned this year to a slightly renovated house. New paint, carpets, windows and two more hot water tanks were a tremendous improvement from the artificial wood paneling and cold showers of the past decade or so.

Two new faces appeared also; one was Malcom Burns of St. Andrew, Scotland. Malcom occupied the best room in the house and lent a hand whenever it was needed. His stay was only for one year and he plans to follow a career in "estate management" at U. of Reading, but he will be remembered by all. From all of Groves, the best of luck to Burnsy!

John Simonton joined the house as an advisor and teacher of Math from Victoria.

His rules were often strange to some of the old boys but he soon conformed and held the respect of all.

Groves held strongly in Academics, third behind the two girls houses. We placed first in Junior Swimming, Golf and Sailing but "sat the fence" in most inter-house events. Our final standing in inter-house points was 4th with 98.5.

The men leaving Groves this year will be gone but not forgotten and next year looks very promising with 5 out of six five year men returning to take the helm with the other grade twelves.

"Sam are you really a holiday or just a happy moose!"

"The stud man himself." Houston is so cool he needs two pairs of glasses.

"That is Ashley!"

"Surprise!" Doug Devlin got surprised by the camera.

Brendan Byers taking in the sights.

"Don't worry be HAPPY" Christian Westarp frowns.

"Nice tongue Edgar" exclaims Mike Goodall.

School House

School House is in its third year of operation and as it was in the beginning, the house has been the underdog with an attitude for success. This year was no exception as we had to overcome the separation between the main house and 'annex', as well as compete against the other girls' house, Kaye's, in interhouse competitions. Holding true to the past the girls attempted every challenge with an easy-going attitude which led them to either success or a lot of fun.

We have consistently led in the interhouse competition against Kaye's house, and been in a close race for the academic shield.

From my point of view as a third year girl, this year has been one of the most rewarding because everyone in the house gave everything attempted, their best effort. This is more than I ever expected or imagined at the beginning of the year and all of the credit goes to the girls of school house for the year 1990/91! Of course what better way to show the enthusiasm of the house than to have a comment about the house or a memory from some of the girls: "Simply the best." - Roome, "Kinda undescribable." - Stephens, "It is phenomenal" - Navratil, "Creative nothingness." - Bohl, "Wilbur Babes!" - Beischer - Boyd - Barratt, "Ravioli pick-ups" - Promislow, "Caring" - Breadner, "Well, it's full of girls" - Roberts,

"School house is the sun that drives winter from the human face." - Nedelec, "A woman without a man is like a fish without a bicycle" - Laing, "Forgive her she's blonde" - Thiessen, "Big Blue's going out!!" - Stronge, V., "R.E.S.P.E.C.T." - Tillie, "Bowling and Dairy Queen." - Pinkerton, "A star which has shared its light with all." - Bertagnolli

Lake's House 1990-91

The 1990-91 year signified a fresh start for Lake's House. With 25 new boys and a new Housemaster, everyone was readjusting. It did not take long, for the house to come together, however, as Lake's placed first in the Round-the-Lake relay and senior swimming. This trend continued throughout the year, as we pulled ourselves out of the cellar into a front running position for interhouse points in both athletics and academics. Several individuals stood out in both these areas.

In academics, Young Hun Song, Craig Whyte, Kelvin Kaw, Irfan Verjee, Nick Smith and Charles Smith, all placed consistently on the honor role, while on the playing field's we were represented by six people on the 1st XV, Mike Dice and Takao Kitagawa who continued to amaze us with their track and field results; and Marcus Steiner who won the Sr. Cross-country, leading Lake's to a victory in yet another interhouse event. We were also helped out this yr by the presence of a Kenyan exchange student, Lui Angaine, who added color to many areas of the house.

Many changes occurred in Lake's House this year, the greatest of which was the presence of a new Housemaster. It is often said that a Housemaster takes a full year to adjust to his position and gain order, but this was not the case with Mr. Candelaria. He approached the year with a great deal of vigour and along with the grade 12's created a new aura about Lake's House which is directly related to our new found success. The house has become a close knit community because through Mr. Candelaria and the grade 12's everyone has a better sense of community responsibility. Because of this, the new Lake's House will surely continue in a positive direction under the leadership of Mr. Candelaria in the years to come. Good luck!

RIPLEY'S

This year in Ripley's, we have managed to stay in the middle of the pack throughout the course of the year. Something that hindered the progress of our pursuit for the Lonsdale's Cup was our Academics. Although we had many strong scholars like Darcy Repen, Marc Klein, Matt Shaw, Matt Perry and Dennis Ma all of whom were able to keep a consistent 80%+ average, we only managed to receive third place amongst the boy's houses.

The biggest highlight of this year was our success at Ski Week. Both our juniors and seniors were able to get first in the downhill skiing events. With the majority of our house in rowing, we were able to easily retain the cup for cross-country skiing with strong finishes from Adam Starr, Marc Klein and Owen Doerfler. Under the fine leadership of Raymond Cheung, our badminton and squash teams finished 2nd respectively. Without a doubt, the juniors in our house kept Ripley's in contention with excellent athletic performers like Mark Bremner, Harry Shebbeare, Greg Goldberg and Doug Tocelyn.

Our house was kept in good order with some fine prefects, however, we needed help from other masters to keep things in control. Our newly acquired Assistant Housemaster Mr. Bonfield and Mr. Dorland helped out with the running of things. And of course, we can't forget Mr. Gotthardt and Mr. Lane for their continuing support for this year. But last of all, we must give an extra thanks to Mr. Grey who has lead Ripley's to his 31st triumphant year as housemaster.

Owen Doerfler
Head of Ripley's

Kaye's House 1990-91

September 6th and Kaye's House was a hive of activity. New girls from Hong Kong to Calgary were arriving at their new home. Along with the arrival of many new faces, came our Assistant Housemistress Miss Jennifer Kennedy - fresh out of university in Ontario and eager to coach the novice girls rowing program.

The happy, positive attitude of Kaye's House, established at the beginning kept us going all year. The voice of Medina, Elise or Chloe and the guitar of Angie could always be heard flooding from some room. The House was led by a fine group of Prefects, Ashley Wilson, Ali Quinn, Erica McLeod, Sarah Simson, Liz McTaggart, Michelle Hackett and myself; all of us trying to do our utmost to control the less diligent!!

Kaye's House girls contributed very strongly to drama this year, taking almost all the leads in the major plays.

One cannot begin to mention all the areas in which the House contributed to school life. Some of the highlights of Kaye's include Rebecca and Joyce on the honour roll all year, DQ blizzards, the rowers of the San Diego Crew Classic, Halloween Haunted Open House with Mr. Sarsfield as "Dracula", bowling and Sarah Housser's MC Hammer Dance afterwards at McD's, the Kiwi Rugby Tour, Secret Santa, many Duncan movies, trips to Victoria, in-house brunches and of course who could get by without the help of the "Wilson Position"!!

It seems that Kaye's House is definitely a house that will be going places as we won nearly every inter-house running event, Round-The-Lake-Relay, Cross-country and an outstanding victory in track and field.

Kaye's House was not only all fun, sports and studying. We also raised (along with the help from the Chapel Committee) $1,500.00 for Camp Goodtimes, by holding a "Name That Teacher" Baby Photo Contest. This was enough to send three cancer kids to the camp this summer.

All of this could not have been possible without the wonderful help and leadership of Mrs. Carr. she put up with alot, including the Grade 12 sleepover, the night the smoke detectors spazzed and would not shut off! A very special THANKS goes to her as well as Mrs. Towner, Mrs. Hall, Miss Kennedy and "Daddy Brian"!!! All the best for the years to come Kaye's House.

"So this is what they meant by suction!" Greg Goldberg after finishing a hard race.

MAKING A SPLASH

Spirits were soaring at Shaw's first Inter house event of the season. All of the houses made their entrances with painted faces, raised flags and loud cheers. Despite the cool air and even cooler water temperatures, all swimmers were prepared to take the plunge. Highlights of the morning included Rayna Bertagnolli's unplanned "dip" and the wrestling match between Jeff Croft and the lane dividing rope. "A great way to start the year," was one spectator's comment.

Grr Ripley's! Mike Miskulin, Owen Doerfler, Dennis Stacey and Otto Roehlig cheer loudly for their house.

RUGBY 1ST. XV

Many players returned early again this year to complete a short but intense pre-season training session. Much to our disappointment this pre-season did not prove to be overly effective as our win-loss record reflects.

Throughout the season the First XV experienced many personnel changes due to injury and other unanticipated forces of nature.

Many of our losses were narrow, especially for our final bout against Brentwood which was fought down to the last ruck. Our team was fortunate to have many out-standing players, who stuck it out until the end.

This years team was a pretty young team. At any given time the maximum amount of grade 12 players did not exceed five. This looks promising for the future. Up and coming players such as Hans Steidl, Gord Mcgeachy and Dave Edgar will be shining lights in next years season.

To all the players, thanks for being such a fun squad to captain. I wish the best to all of you in your future rugby careers. More so, let me thank Mr. Felix and Mr. Hall for an interesting South Pacific tour and great Rugby season.

All the best,
Eduard Steidl

RUGBY 3RDS./4THS. XV

Rec. rugby or social xv might have been a more appropriate name for us than the "Second Game" but it certainly has been an interesting season. It's also been enjoyable, eventful and even informative( you notice that winning is not included in the description). Despite our statistically poor record , 0 and ... ( I lost count for most of the season), the year has been good with many memorable moments; our loss to Brentwood's Vths, for instance , our interesting practices ( or should that be non-practices) with Mr. Connolly and the infamous caterpillars. It really wasn't as bad as it sounds because even though alot of us were new to the game ( over a third term) or in it more for the fun than to win , there were several players who tried hard, played well and should certainly move up next year.

These guys, combined with an infusion of experienced players mid- way through the term, led to our more successful record towards the end of the season . All in all, it's been a great , fun season and a much better alternative to running and weights..... and I should know!

RUGBY COLTS A

This year's version of the Colt 'A' xv showed tremendous promise at the start of the season. There was good size, skill and determination by mid season however, it became apparent that major changes were needed if the team was going to turn things around after a pair of Independant School losses. The changes certainly seemed to put the team into gear and we were able to capture the Mid Island Championship in a tournament at Brentwood in which the team scored 31 points for and none against in 3 games. It was unfortunate that the season came to a rather anti-climatic end with the raining out of the Island Championships. Nonetheless, the season must be considered a success in most regards.

Special mention should go to Olovitz for his fine leadership and competent play at half back, to Metha for his hard work as forward and Roberts for his excellent kicking skill.

"Why do they make us play rugby first thing on Saturday morning? I'm so tired!" Anthony Olovitz, an exchange student from Australia, barks commands to his team.

Back Row: Mr. G. Dickens, R. Whitehead, N. Robertson, H. Shebbeare, G. Goldberg, J. Fane, N. Byfield, M. Jones, M. Cleare
Front Row: R. Arnaiz, S. Mehta, D. Stafinski, A. Olovitz, L. Angaine, J. LeFevre, N. Shepard

"Come on everybody. Gather 'round. We've discovered something here!" Members of the Colts gather for a scrum in a gruelling match against Brentwood.

"Here we go. A little to the left now. Come to Papa!" Harry Shebbeare gives directions to the game ball in competitive play.

"I think I can. I think I can!" Ray Arnaiz escapes the grasp of the opposition.

RUGBY COLTS B/C

It was an interesting season for the ColtB rugby team.

The wins and the losses are only one part of the game. More important to me was seeing this tentative group of boys move towards a gritty, determined team. It is true we had several people moving among A,B, and C team; nonetheless, there was a sense of pride and dedication which evolved on all of the squads.

I trust the Colts will carry on with their rugby, providing the senior squads with the pride and dedication.

Thanks for the great season boys!

RUGBY JR. COLTS

This year the junior colt A's and B's had fine rugby seasons. Despite winning only a couple of games I feel each team has learned something new about the game. The A and B teams had numerous players from the past year but the addition of new members made both teams a bit better. The only thing both teams lacked was consistent support of the ball. If we had this support more often, we would have won most of our games. The most aggressive tacklers were Judson Heller and Alex Greer. They were always there to make the tackle. Both Demetrio Tessada and Shawn Wheldon were fast running centers that kept on driving until brought down. I hope that the position changes that a number of people went through, provided positive new experiences. Without the help of Mr. Noble and Mr. Burns, both teams would not have been as good for a fine season and hope

RUGBY JUNIOR

With 24 boys to choose from, the Grade 8 rugby group in September was in a predicament; not quite enough players to make two teams, yet too many to make one team. At that point I decided to try and arrange enough games so that every member would be able to play. Altogether we had 11, and our record was a successful 8 wins, 1 tie and 2 losses.

I was extremely pleased with the effort that these boys exhibited over the season. They learned what I consider to be the most important ingredient of any successful rugby team, and that is discipline. This group of young men set an example that many top class teams could learn from.

It would be difficult to single out personalities, unless I mentioned every player, so I will refrain from doing so. Rugby after all is a team game and these boys proved that. Special mention has to be given to Mark Lamont, however, who did a superb job as the backs' coach. He is a talented individual who will serve the game well in the future both as a player and as a coach.

FIELD HOCKEY SR. GIRLS

In September the girls first XV field hockey team played their 3rd consecutive season. We started off the year with a very promising team composed mainly of grade 12's. Not excluding our grade 11 pair of power houses, Kelly Jelema and Stefanie Westarp.

We played the I.S.As early this year at Brentwood, where came an overall 3rd which was the best result Shawnigan Lake girls field hockey has done in our school history.

Sadly, there was not a second team this year due to the lack of numbers, so girls field hockey was shaped from a unification of the two teams. This led to greater spirit and a stronger determination to make a name for girls field hockey at Shawnigan.

I could safely say that every girl on the team has improved immensely during this season as an individual and as a team player to make a winning season.

Our goalies were Rosalind Roome and Shannon Campbell. Defence players: Mara Blume, Kim Ross, Erica McLeod, Kim Ross, Arabelle Campbell and Ali Quinn. Our half backs consisted of Rayna Bertagnoli, Lisa Finlayson, Stefanie Westarp, Katherine Silcok, and Alana Wade. Forwards were: Ingrid Hanson, Brigitte Steiner, Kelly Jelema, Michelle Hakett and Ashley Wilson.

Thanks to Mr. VanDeth (Art-r) who travelled everyday to coach us. We all wish the field hockey teams to come great success in the future.

FIELD HOCKEY JR. GIRLS

Praise be to this year's Jr. Girls Field Hockey team. We had a rough start but, boy, we really started to pull through near the end.

We played many games against the more experienced Queen Margaret's School and learned a great deal, almost winning our last bout which was our team's best game of the season. But in doing so, we also learned sportsmanship and made a lot of new friends, which is probably more important. We had much the same experience with Brentwood except we did win against them a time or two.

Goal scorers were Kristen Bendickson (1), Zoe Stronge (1), and Vicky Stronge (2). V.I.P.'s were Alice Stephen, Jen Barratt, Trisha Bohl, Elana Promislow, Sarah Jarvis, Fernie Perez, Kristy Roberge. M.V.P.'s go to Janet Stevens, Sarah Tillie, Sarah Hattingh, Devon Tillie, Challa Saunders, Sheena Laing and Kathy Mikolajczyk (our great goalie); everyone who helped build the team and make it so much fun.

We'd all like to extend warmest thanks to our wonderful Coach Mrs. Grass, who taught us everything, toughed the elements and believed in us when few others did. The latter was very important to us all and pushed us to excel and helped us grow. Thank you.

BADMINTON

Badminton was played over two terms this year, with a recreational group in the first term, followed by team play up to Spring Break. Over 20 students played before Christmas and all were keen and enthusiastic to improve skill levels.

In match play, we found competition stiff in the I.S.A tournament but played well against the best players in the system. In the Boys' tournament, we came third. In other matches, we boasted a 4-1 winning record with wins over Glenlyon-Norfolk, Maxwell Bahai and Lake Cowichan.

Raymond Cheung earned School Colours in his fifth season in the Badminton program and confirmed that he is one of the best under-19 players in B.C. We shall be sorry to lose Gill Mullins, Heather Padula, Sarah Simpson, Julian Kung, Aryn Hussain and Raymond next year. I hope that they will continue to play after Shawnigan.

Joyce Yen and Eric Siu will be next year's captains of Badminton.

In house Badminton Copeman's just edged out Ripley's for the Boy's team title and the fine trophy donated by Raymond Cheung. Raymond won the Boy's individual singles trophy. In the Girl's play, Kaye's house won for the first time in a close match.

VOLLEYBALL SENIOR

This year, Shawnigan's third year of girls' volleyball, proved to be quite successful for the senior girls. Under the coaching of Jennifer Kennedy the team improved in every aspect of the game. Although we did not win any tournaments, we were definitely a contending team. Some individual highlights included Anne-Marie's aggressive setting and defensive skills, Melody Love's consistant serve and solid playing, and Rebecca Morley's leadership and spirit; Robyn Roth's strong defensive skills and spirit, the offensive skills and leadership of Helen Mayes and the strong serving and offensive skills offered by Courtney Scott, to name a few. While all players improved immensely over the course of the season, Sarah Robson was probably the most improved. As there were only three grade twelves on the team, there remains a strong, solid base for next year's team. With several promising players coming up from the junior program they should have an excellent year. Good luck!

VOLLEYBALL JUNIOR

The junior volleyball team had an all but disappointing first term. Although we did not win all our games, we played hard and had fun. Everyone got involved and got to know each other. We had a good time travelling in buses and at games. We had a powerful team for the junior level and a special mention should go to Alanna H., Arlee B., and Nadine S., who were three dedicated, powerful players with spikes, serves and offense.

We wouldn't have been complete without our setters; Medina H. and Erin K. Paula N. and Gwynn J. were full of support on and off the court as well as Michelle L., Natalie S., Sarah H. and Sue P. who were consistent with serves and defense. With all of this in one team we were anything but wimpy!

We ended a successful season coming fourth in the I.S.A.'s with our extraordinary coaches Helen Mayes and Mr. J. Simonton.

Good luck Arlee, Paula, Sue and Gwynn with the leadership of the junior team next year!

"Just you try to get it past me!" Bryna McKechnie blocks Anne-Marie Roberts as she heads for the basket.

BASKETBALL SENIOR GIRLS

"You'll puke before you pass out and you'll pass out before you die," -

Mr Connolly's words to the wise. I'm not sure if this statement got everyone into the right mood to practice hard, but let it be noted that no one ever get to the first stage, one of regurgitation. Another of our mottos was "Acknowledge it. And let it go." This allowed for a basketball team that was out to have fun, and that is precisely what we had. We either killed our opponents or our opponents killed us. But in either situation there was always good humor and intense concentration.

Those that rung Shawnigan up as an easy win included Saint Margarets; a team of height and skill, and Brentwood; a team of force and strategy. We had an easier time against the likes of Q.M.S. and Lake Cowichan. Although I wouldn't site our past season as one of immense success, I can honestly say that each and every player on the team was playing considerably better at the end of March than they were at the beginning of January.

Mr. Connolly, our coach, managed to make everyone laugh with his impersonations and jokes (if they could be heard over Kim's walkman). He helped every member of the team improve all aspects of play. Thank-you. Good luck to all the players in their future endeavors, and just one last motto- "Remember to never start a conversation with your bus driver."

Robin Roth

"She goes in for winning point and the crowd goes wild!" Bryna McKechnie, going for glory.

Varsity Basketball '91

It all begins with Michael Jordon and the Chicago Bulls, but when the channel changes we go from T.V. to reality. Now what we see is "Chair Jordon" (Ed Steidl) and the Shawnigan Stags. But this is only the beginning of the season, and what an impressive season it will turn out to be.

It begins with memories of losses last season to second place in our division this season. With only three league losses our senior boys basketball team showed exceptional workmanship on and off the court. But the second place outcome would not have been possible without the effort of the whole team.

We begin with the strength of the two year mean, the power and agility of Mike Dice, Bill Robertson and Derek Orton. Also the quickness of Charles Smith, Ed Steidl, Darcy Repen and Faizel Sunderji. Other exceptional final year play was maintained by Art Leong and Matt Burchill. But it was also the first year members, Quinn Myhill-Jones and Mike Goodall, who contributed to such a great season, and I would like to wish them luck next year.

S WIMMING

Yes, the swimming program was on again this year at Shawnigan and what a dynamic group it was! We had a colourful mosaic of folks cramming for their tests (you NLS's!) while Duncan and Paul showed off their wonderful physical fitness on the endurance swims.

PJ and Jason Barlow hit the diving boards, Otto and Jason Kaye enjoyed the bus rides in great time to catch up on the ol' beauty sleep. Then there was Louise: "I learned to blow bubbles today!" - great effort on her part! The Bronze Cross group had a great time with Loni - the coach, lots of free time and not too much theory! The Bronze Medallion group worked very hard - lots of theory - fun fun!

Probably the most enjoyed activity was the scuba diving offered by the pool. We got to take a fishes' eye view of the people treading water and swimming lengths. Unfortunately, we only got to go once but it was a lot of fun.

So, over all, we had a very successful term. everyone passed their exams with flying colours and it was a lot of fun. A special thank you to Mr. Dukelow for his patience and the Saturday MacDonald's trips!

Congratulations everyone!

CE HOCKEY

The 1990/1991 season was a most satisfying and productive year for our senior hockey team. Our ISA competition started in January with Brentwood College being our only local fixture. During the regular schedule, we managed to have good games with them and Shawnigan ended up with a win, a tie and two losses. This set the stage for the ISA tournament in which St. George's also participate.

In the first game against the Saints, we defeated them quite easily. Then we had to play Brentwood right after and fell behind 3-0 early in the contest. However, we regrouped and only lost 3-2, thanks to great goal tending by Darren Turecki.

Things looked dim but in the end the Saints defeated Brentwood on a last minute goal and thus we took the title on goals for and against. Graduating players Moir, Johnston, Rowsell, Kuta, and Repen will be missed. Thanks to the whole team for a great season and thanks to Mr. Sarsfield for his contribution in helping with practices.

OCCER GIRLS

For various reasons this year's version of the girl's soccer was mainly concerned with skill development and intra-squad scrimmages. All participants were able to greatly improve their basic skills and worked hard to better understand the game. Mr. Dickens worked us hard every practice but he was able to also make each session fun. Players of note were Kim Ross, Michelle Hackett and Anne-Marie Roberts. Hopefully there will be more players next year so as to ensure more matches.

SQUASH

Squash has expanded greatly this year, with the new sports system effectively doubling court time. This has allowed many more novice players, and even rank beginners, a chance to chase after that defenceless little black ball, along with the usual collection of fanatics.

This year, Mr. Candelaria has taken charge of the senior program, teaching the players everything from the basics (the ball is supposed to make it to the front wall after you hit it!) to complex strategy; (calling a 'let' when your opponent's in the 'danger zone' should get you a 'stroke') and spicing it up with a few of his own tips.

Despite Mr. Candelaria's occasional absences, the players absorbed what was taught and soon, successes in the Pacific Northwest Junior Championships, the Pacific Coast Open and the I.S.A.'s brightened the endless training, drills and practice matches.

Under the auspices of Mrs. Grass, the junior program, too, was a success. The junior players (most with enough experience to challenge half the seniors) were just as, if not more, successful than the older counter parts, especially at the inter-school level. Those that return to the program will clearly maintain the quality of squash at Shawnigan in the future.

Despite interference from injury, Wilburforce and other commitments, the 1991 squash program at Shawnigan was a great experience, enjoyed by all involved.

Senior Soccer

Once again the Senior soccer programme was harmed by the Winter term weather. The First XI had the potential to score many goals with the infusion of Jorge Usabianga from the Under 16's and Gordon McGeachy, a new student from the strong Cowichan Valley Soccer programme. Unfortunately things went downhill after a close, yet high-scoring, loss at St. George's of 5-4. In this game we scored fine goals, with a special one scored by Gord McGeachy. Nevertheless the game showed our weaknesses in goal and in defence, problems which were never resolved all season. After a hiatus due to poor weather we played St. George's at home and were on the offensive after equalizing from one of Aaron Chapman's prodigious long throws. Then tragedy struck and Gord McGeachy was carried off with a sickening knee injury which finished his season. The other games against Brentwood were disappointing and showed our lack of strength in depth. Despite the problems the team kept working and George Hamplas, the captain, was awarded School Colours in Soccer for his leadership and skill over his four years at the school.

Jorge Usabianga defends his ball from his opponent.

"Ahh, so what are you saying .

"Next year I need longer clubs."

"Stick to hockey, Wade."

This year's golf team was an unexperienced team, but despite that did quite well in the two major school tournaments that were held. At the Independent Schools held at Peace Portal Golf Club. Shawnigan finished third place with fine performances by Mike Johnston, Kyle Moir, Wade Wagstaff, Craig Whyte, and Charles Smith. The other school tournament was the South Island playdowns at Glen Meadows Golf Club where we finished in the middle of the pack, with scores by Mike Johnston, Kyle Moir, Jason Wilkinson, Craig Whyte, and Bart Straw.

The recreational team was mainly for practice and enjoyment, where we went out 3 times weekly, and saw great improvement by people such as Jason Roberts and Shane Kim.

There were also two in school events, the first one being Inter-House golf, where, with the help of Mike Johnston, Jason Wilkinson and Wade Wagstaff, Groves House set a new school record at 57 points, beating the one set in 1985, also by Groves. Lonsdale's was in second place, followed by Lakes, Ripley's and Copeman's. Individually Mike Johnston and Owen Doerfler tied with 24 points each, one off the school record.

Finally, the Goody Cup which is the Match Play tournament for the school championship, got down to the final four - Mike Johnston, Owen Doerfler, Kyle Moir and Jason Wilkinson. The final was between Mike and Owen, it was very close at the start, then Mike Johnston won seven consecutive holes and the Goody Cup, for the second year running. Congratulations to all golfers on a fine season. Thank-you very much to Mr. Fraser for coaching the golf team this year.

BOYS VARSITY

It had been a season of hard work, fun, and good racing: hard rows in the rain to the end of the lake, trying to balance the shell and earn a donut. Looking after the amorous Bucket in Disneyland, great spirit and good racing in San Diego. The greatest adventure of all had been learning to reach beyond ourselves in order to achieve a higher level of performance. We had to learn how to trust one another, to pull harder, and to row better. We had to learn the essence of "crew." Highlights include a victory for the 4+ at the B.C. Champ's, and a strong 3rd (in a field of 7) for the 8+ at our Shawnigan Regatta.

Gee it was fun . . . those 50 . . . or was that 70-stroke pieces? Yes, we were blessed by the return of Mister Jason Dorland. Words to describe these exhilarating practices? Early, throbbing, intense, climactic, fast.

PAINFUL. In his ten gallon hat, and his drizabone, he showed no mercy. This soon payed off with a win at the first regatta, the Shawnigan Head of the Lake. The training intensified, as we finished a close second to Ridley's Lightweights at the Brentwood Regatta. Then, as the season progressed, we placed consistently second to Brentwood's Lightweights. The season finished with a third place finish in a dead heat for the J.V. event at Shawnigan Lake Regatta. At this point, the eight split up, and the stern four turned their heads eastwards to the Canadian Schoolboy Championships, trading their half-term break for the experience of a lifetime. The Ridley dungeon, Avondale's, and a gold medal were more than enough to make the trip memorable, as the four pulled off a close victory over Upper Canada College. In conclusion, the lightweight crew of '91 would like to thank Mr. Dorland for making 'our best' the best.

GIRLS SR. NOVICE

Despite the unavoidable obstacles that plague any inexperienced crew (balancing a boat, feathering a blade, staying in synch) this proved to be an interesting and fun year for Miss Kennedy's crew of '91. We not only trained and competed in all the local regattas, but we had fun doing it. We will always remember the joke sessions with Andrea and the field trips with our lively (though blonde) coach. Whether we return to rowing (or join sailing because it looks a whole lot easier) this will be one experience none of us will ever forget.

GIRLS JR. B NOVICE

Even in the earliest days of the training season this group showed a great deal of enthusiasm and team spirit, and they raced well at Shawnigan's Head-of-the-Lake (which was the first-ever racing experience for the majority of the crew). Few clubs have yet established a Girls Jr. B program, so we were often forced to compete against older girls. Nonetheless, we frequently placed second or third in those open-age-group races. Highlights for the Jr. B Novice 8+ include a win at the B.C. Championships and a strong second place finish at the Shawnigan regatta, while the Jr. B. Novice 4+ and the Jr. C 4+ both posted victories at the Shawnigan Regatta. In all it was a very successful year for the Jr. B. Girls, and these girls have the solid technical skills and good attitude upon which to build next year's program.

RECOGNITION

The 1991 Regatta was the 30th annual, for both the school and Joe Grey. Mr. Grey delights in organizing big events, and the Shawnigan Regatta is a tribute to his energy and drive.

Standing L-R J. Stevens, C. Boyd, J. Rattan, A. Stevens, C. Vioen, S. Tillie, A. Moore, M. Milliken, D. Tillie, B. Davis, N. Spencley, P. Bohl, K. Roberge, S. Lange, K. Bendickson, P. Navratil
Seated T. Chow, C. Saunders.

The lightweight 4+ (N. Smith, D. Pattison, S. Mehta, D. Jones, cox- B. Bendickson) won gold in the Jr. 70kg. event at the CSSRA Championships, under the able and dedicated coaching of Mr. Dorland.

The MICHEAL HOWRIGAN TROPHY (top oarsman) went to Owen Doerfler).

The EMMA BORGERSON TROPHY (top oarswoman) went to Helen Mayes.

The BOURNE TROPHY (service in rowing) went to Peter Dry for the second year in a row.

TENNIS

Participants in the programme began with the annual tournament in Nanaimo but league competition was slower than usual. We defeated Brentwood twice by a score of 6-5. As well, our second squad trounced their counterparts from Brentwood. We hosted the North Central Vancouver Island League playoffs where we defeated all northern teams only to set up another final against Brentwood. We lost 3 of 4 tie breakers and thereby lost the match 5-6. We still qualified for the provincials by beating Mt. Doug of Victoria who were awarded the surprise 4th berth for the Island. Despite being placed in a very strong pool, we were soundly whipped by the eventual finalists, Shawnigan performed well and a special mention go to Adam Thomas and Craig Charnock for their fine doubles play. After losing a squeaker to SMU (5-6) and two injuries to starting players we finished 14th place.

On the homefront, Darcy Repen (co-captain) was awarded his School colours and he displayed his talents for all to see in the Inter-house competition where he defeated all his opponents. Lonsdale's clearly won the event with Graeme Magee and Adam Thomas going undefeated. School House dominated the girls competition. Joyce Yen won the new Irene Chu Challenge Cup, Adam Thomas and Zoe Stronge claimed the Coupe de toute saison, and Alvaro Santistevan triumphed in 3 sets for the Grogan Cup. Julian Kung (co-captain) and Craig Charnock were also awarded their School colours and the tennis season came to an abrupt close. Congratulations to those students who took part in the programme. Mr. Candelaria, Mrs Carr and Andrew Hobbs, an excellent local instructor and player, enjoyed coaching everyone.

FIELD HOCKEY BOYS

"There will be no field hockey this year", exploded Mr Halls' message, unless, of course, we could find someone willing to coach us. Things looked grim. Mr. Van Deth was off fighting fires and Mr. Lane was just too busy. Just when things looked bleakest however, Mrs. Grass generously volunteered, saving everyone from the ignoble fate of having to join rowing or track.

The firsts ferociously contested every game of the rather short season. Despite starting off with only one player who had any previous experience at the senior level, the Seconds also had a good season. The highlight of the seconds' season was soundly defeating arch-rivals Brentwood to earn a second place finish in the I.S.A.'s. The juniors also has a victorious, if rather short, season. Miles Bates and Felix Hui both also regulars for the firsts, led a strong team that outclassed much of the opposition.

A special thanks must go to Mrs. Grass who coached all three teams virtually by herself and had to put up with all our quirks and problems, mistakes and excuses. Over all, though, the field hockey program at Shawnigan was, once again, a great experience this year.

CYCLING

This year Shawnigan Lake School has a new cycling coach, Mr. John Simonton and six enthusiastic young riders signed up to be part of this now well respected sport. Immediately after meeting our fellow rides and coaches for the first time as a team, we were graced with the responsibility of being a part of the first Shawnigan Lake School Racing Team.

The 14th Annual Tour Du Lac was held on May 3rd. This year, our team rode in the senior division, covering a gruelling 62km course. all of our riders crossed the finish line in excellent times, with our best placing going to Marcus Steiner who finished 10th. Our team also competed in other races in Victoria including the Annual Mt. Douglas Hill Climb, the Newton Heights Circuit Race and various time trials. We all improved over the season, due to brilliant coaching from Darren Hutchinson, a professional cyclist who volunteered to help coach our team. On behalf of the rest of the team, I'd like to say thank you to Miss Bunkall for organizing the Tour Du Lac and to Mr. Simonton and Darren for the long hours they dedicated to helping us. We are all looking forward to another great season next year and I can safely say that all of us were extremely proud to be wearing the black and gold jersey, everytime we crossed the finish line.

SAILING

The sailors this year were eager and showed the willingness to make the season successful. There were many new members, some who turned out to be experienced racers and some began as experienced racers. Each sailor contributed most weekends to make the year successful.

This year's team consisted of C. Lowden, R. Coleman, S. Simson, R. Roome, J. Stibbard, D. Stacey, C. Vermette, T. Story, L. Barber, and D. Ransom. We participated in four major regattas this year. The most exciting was the two day regatta held at Maple Bay Yacht Club. The competition was strong, along with the wind, but we were able to pull off first, second and third in most of our races. Overall, John Stibbard placed first and Cliff Vermette placed second in the Laser fleet. In the Laser two fleet, Rachelle and Adelle Coleman placed first and Rosalynd Roome and Sarah Simson placed second.

The Rogers Cup was also a two day regatta, against Brentwood. After a close battle on the final day, Brentwood beat us by 3 points, allowing them to keep the cup for one more year.

A new tradition at the school is to race against Glenlyon-Norfolk in a fun regatta. Going into the regatta we discovered that one of their sailors is provincially ranked in B.C. This didn't put us off, at the end of the day Glenlyon-Norfolk finished behind.

The sailing club was fortunate this year in having the assistance of Adelle Coleman for most of the last term. Adelle was a popular and experienced coach who brought a lot of enthusiasm to the program and who ably helped out in both junior and senior groups.

All in all, this year was a success for sailing and it looks as though the years to come will be just as successful. Thanks for a great season.

Head Student's Speech

Today is a day full of mixed emotions. The good, the bad, and the sad are ever present today. Today is the day you all have been living for during these last few weeks. Today we leave behind the tangibles and the intangibles that have been close to all of us.

Compared to the amount of things that we put in our bag of memorabilia, the things left behind are minimal. This school has been a place of learning, discovering, and developing for all of us. Our time at Shawnigan has allowed many of us to discover things about ourselves that otherwise would have gone unnoticed. For all those of you returning in September, all of you have, at, some phase during the Shawnigan Experience, discovered and developed at least one talent. To some this talent may be more specific and defined, to others it is more of a personal achievement.

Shawnigan is a place based on personal involvement. The atmosphere that this school creates is like none other. There are the good and the bad times, the happy and the sad times that everyone experiences. It the massing together of all these elements that creates the idea person. Life is a learning game. We all thrive on knowledge and philosophy. It is the combination of things learnt added to our personal reflections, that makes each of us unique. Today is only the tip of the iceberg. Learning is a process that never ceases. For those of you leaving this place, the things we have learned go far beyond the scope of any text book. It the things taught at this school by those around you that are hard to encounter anywhere else.

Right now the excitement is building. We are all focused on the future and to what the world has to offer us. But today is a day for memories. . . . it's amazing how these memories surface. It was a night in mid April. Four graduates and I, decided to have our names immortalized on the beams of the bell tower. It was a portrait of Murphy's Law: anything that can go wrong will go wrong. To sum the events, two wires which happened to be on my shoulder crossed, causing an array of sparks but more significantly the sound of the chapel bell, waking a majority of the student body, staff members . . . and Mr. Magee I'm really sorry. Such is the way that many of our memories will remain lodged in our minds for ever.

For those of you under the reign of Mr. Dickens you will all remember those extended practises in the dark of night, and our hard work was rewarded by us winning the Independent School Colts XV tournament. To Mr. Dickens, you taught many of us all we know about commitment. And then to my farthest memories, I clearly remember sitting on the toilet on my first day crying, cursing at my mother for making me come here. I had no intention of remaining here for even one year, yet alone four. After this painful ordeal it was off to the library to hear from Mr. Anderson, another whom I knew so little about. His speech was one about being involved and how your involvement would lead to a speedy completion of the year. Somehow this memory has been one of my driving forces during my four years here. It has made these four years seem like four days. We have gained so much from this school, its benefits are diverse, from learning to tie a tie to getting up here and having to address you, my graduating class.

We have all seen each other grow and change, mature and prosper, come and go. Perhaps at this time we cannot distance ourselves far enough away from the school to recognize all the benefits we have earned. I think that a few years, perhaps for some a few days, from now we will be able to look back on the school with recollected insight on all we have gained. We look now on what the rest of the world has to offer, but it is safe to say that we will all someday remember what it was all about.

If you have a dream, nothing can stand in your way, nothing can stop you. Today is one of the last days that we the graduating class of 1991 will ever in its entirety be gathered under one roof. It is a sad day for some, but a joyous day for most. To the staff, this is a day which all of you helped to create, we are your products. To our parents look at us now, remember when we first started kindergarten, well this is only the beginning. To the school, I thank thee. You will always remain close to my heart and always in my mind. Finally, to my peers, remember the times you have spent here and the friends you have made. This school has given you so much, and you the same to the school. May prosperity be your crutch on your journey to the future. We have reached our first rest stop on this, our long road to success. Peace.

ED STEIDL

A Valediction

I once sat up through the cooling night, alone,
and then at end, watched with wondrous eyes,
the distant rising sun, the night's funeral pyre.
With calm acceptance I was lost amongst the subline sound of the closing hymnal.

The Past came surgin up, fountain of memory,
burning with nostalgiac fervour,
recollected passion.

The Earth;
she was different that day,
she set a stiff challenge.

From the lakehead, our tearful glad eyes stared out upon the shifting morning's mist, the yoage through the obscurity seemed improbable, dangerous, anxious.

We, the vanguard of inexperience, looked dreamily out upon the open airy skies, flexed the tight makeshift wings upon our backs and said a quiet prayer to Daedalus' wisdom.

A huge intake of nervous oxygen.
Flight,
into the idyllic hopeful distance,
too close to the molten sun,
faltering fledgling wings,
beat the crisp air desperately
(a brutal sobering landing)

The Fall, fast and furious, conspired against the centered earth, so familiar in youthful hope, distant in the chill eyes of experience.

I felt a caressing hand held in mine,
reminiscent of glowing school days.
The pain (fear, anxiety) and uncertainty vanished,
ethereal spirits pulled the veil away,
reveiled beautious truth, closed to criticism.
Love,

it was like the call to arms,
all vigour, pure religious anxiety,
a dream partially fulfilled.

Goodby, sang the nostalgiac night, mourning not for the past spirit that once danced in the transient light of days well spent in platonic comforts.

Accept our history to dust laden libraries, touched only by the fool archivist, who,
patches and repairs works of parched paper,
and have him translate the unwritten future to warm, soft granite tabulae that will last unconditionally the grinding of oens.

(Godspeed)

FAREWELL TO GOOD FRIENDS

It is always a wrench to lose a valued staff member, so it was with very mixed feelings we greeted the news of Bill McCracken's appointment as Headmaster of Rosseau Lake School in Ontario. While we are obviously happy for Bill, we are also sad at losing a good friend and colleague. We know Rosseau Lake had made the right choice and that the school will flourish under Bill's guidance and leadership but we would not have been at all sorry had they chosen someone else. In the ten years Bill and his family have been at Shawnigan, they have accomplished much and have certainly become part of the fabric of the school. Whether as Housemaster of Groves House, Director of Admissions, teacher of Social Studies, of debating and public speaking or running the outreach program, just some of his many functions, Bill was a busy man. But he was also a caring and patient teacher, a man of integrity and principle, a family man, a helpful friend and a responsible citizen - just a really successful independent boarding school schoolmaster. We know he will get wonderful support and help from Beth, his wife, a fine teacher and counsellor in her own right. Rosseau Lake is getting a great team in the McCracken's. Good luck to them all from Shawnigan.

Well, there you have it! Nineteen-ninety to nineteen-ninety-one, all wrapped up in a couple hundred pages. During the past year we have all witnessed the growth of students, the school, the world and our personal lives. The year of 1991 will not go down in the Shawnigan Lake history books as just another year. Instead it will be reflected on as one of the most progressive years in the schools' history. The environmental issue came to stay, the sports and activities programs expanded, the campus went through a small renovation and the largest grade twelve class ever attending Shaw graduated.

Although all the little ups and downs of your life here at Shaw may not be published for all to see, the Stag staff hopes that what is contained in the previous pages will trigger memories that will entertain you for years to come.
